Read the story carefully and then answer the questions below.

During the school holidays, Max went to the zoo with his father and mother. He saw many animals there.

The elephants were huge. The zookeeper was giving them a bath. The lions looked fierce and Max was afraid of them. A lot of people took photographs with the peacocks. Daddy said to Max, "The animals with the long necks are giraffes." Most of the animals were kept in enclosures and cages so that they could not escape from the zoo. They also would not hurt the visitors.

Soon, it was time to go home. Max and his parents felt very tired but they enjoyed themselves tremendously at the zoo.
